

Team Poetry Lessons Some Guidelines

Topics:

Three teams will be assigned a poet: either Dickinson, Frost, or Hughes.

Four teams will be assigned a theme: either love and longing, teaching and learning, humor and satire, or 'Border Crossings.'

Poems:

Use the poems in The Bedford Introduction to Literature, 8th ed.

You may add one additional poem if you feel it necessary.

Secondary Sources:

Print:

- Use the critical material in the literature anthology.

Electronic:

- Begin with the widest group of Internet sites you can locate but at least ten, exclusive of encyclopedias and other general sites.
- From that group, select the three most helpful.

Presentation:

- Your team will give a short lesson on your poet. You will probably want to focus on two of the poems. You want the point of the lesson to be something more valuable than, say, Dickinson is swell. Find a focus. You will have 20-30 minutes, inclusive of any class discussion or questions you choose to include. Your grade will be penalized for every minute you go beyond 30.
- You are to include some sort of a visual aid along the way. It could be projected, drawn on the board, held up, posted.... you decide what will be most effective.

Written work:

- You will submit a lesson summary of about one side of one page.
- You will turn in as well a tidy list of the web sites your team found. Include the title and the URL for each.
- You will write an "AP-type" essay question that prompts writers to identify one or more techniques or devices your poet uses and to explain how the poet uses them to convey an element such as theme, character, tone, point of view, idea, setting, mood, or the like.
- The written work may be handwritten, printed, or submitted electronically.
